Engelsk — To Be i datid · B

Navn: _____

Dato: _____

i Sådan bøjer du to be i datid

I datid betyder to be var. I nutid er der tre former (am, is, are), men i datid er der kun to: was og were. Ord som yesterday, last week og ago viser, at det er datid.

was — I, he, she, it og én person eller ting: Tom, the dog were — you, we, they og flere personer eller ting: Tom and Lisa, the dogs

Hvem	Nutid	Datid	Dansk
I	am	was	jeg var
you	are	were	du var
he / she / it	is	was	han, hun, den var
we	are	were	vi var
you	are	were	I var
they	are	were	de var

1 Vælg den rigtige form og skriv den i feltet

opg. 1–12

1. Last night the moon _____ big. (was / were)
2. Yesterday my shoes _____ wet. (was / were)
3. Last Saturday Tom and I _____ at the cinema. (was / were)
4. Last winter it _____ very cold. (was / were)
5. Yesterday the teacher _____ angry. (was / were)
6. Two years ago they _____ in 3rd grade. (was / were)
7. Last weekend I _____ at my gran's house. (was / were)
8. The children _____ very quiet. (was / were)
9. My phone _____ on the table. (was / were)
10. You _____ in my team last year. (was / were)
11. The test _____ hard. (was / were)
12. We _____ tired after the trip. (was / were)

Husk dette!

Én person eller ting får was. Flere personer eller ting får were.
Eksempel: My shoe was wet. → My shoes were wet.

Engelsk — To Be i datid · B

Navn: _____

Dato: _____

2 Oversæt til dansk

engelsk → dansk

1. We were very hungry.

2. It was a nice day.

3. The dogs were in the park.

4. My mum was a teacher.

5. I was in the garden.

6. They were at the beach.

3 Oversæt til engelsk

dansk → engelsk

1. Jeg var bange.

2. Vi var på ferie.

3. Det var sjovt.

4. Æblerne var røde.

5. Han var i skole.

6. Du var god.

Husk dette!

Når du oversætter var, så find først ud af, hvem der var noget. Vælg så was eller were.
Eksempel: Æblerne var røde → æblerne = they → The apples were red.